Unsurprisingly, a very strong class, with high quality wines across all ages and styles. Judging was as complex as the wines, and; as elsewhere in the show we tried to reward a number of different styles.

Class Comments:

We wanted to give entry 12 Gold; sweetness was not the issue, rather phenolics and a certain hardness on the finish.

25	Bishops Rock Sauvignon Blanc	2005
26	Meadowbank Sauvignon Blanc	2005
27	Nocton Park Sauvignon Blanc	2005

Class Comments:

A hard struggle. Many wines had a confectionary sweetness which might presently be commercially acceptable, but should not be relied on in the medium/long term

31	Jinglers Creek Chardonnay	2004
32	Craigow Chardonnay	2004

Class Comments:

Unwooded chardonnay can be good, but rarely scale the heights of wooded versions of the same vintage.

31	Providence Madame Miguet Reserve Chardonnay	2005	Top Gold
32	Observatory Hill Chardonnay	2005	Bronze
33	Panorama Chardonnay	2005	Silver

Class Comments:

Three Gold and a very unusual 12 Silver medals tell much of the tale - a very strong class reflecting the vintage. One might have expected more of the Silvers to be elevated to Gold. Part of the reason is the considerable spread of style (a good thing) which gave rise to understandable divergence of opinions. In the end, the top award went to a wine with the fruit purity line and length one associates with chablis.

20	Providence Chardonnay	2003	Bronze
21	Moorilla Estate Chardonnay	2002	Gold
22	Providence Monet Chardonnay	1998

Class Comments:

Great class showing the special ability of Tasmanian chardonnay has to age with grace, underpinned by natural acidity. Especially pleasing is the lack of excessively oaked wines.

Class Comments:

Balance between extract, sweetness & acidity is critical and difficult to achieve. The Gold medal succeeded in doing so.

Number	Wine	Vintage	Award
1	Bass Fine Wine 'Strait' Pinot Noir	2006	Bronze
2	Tamar Ridge Devil's Corner Pinot Noir	2006	Bronze

Class Comments:

A good omen for '06 when the more complex wines with more barrel age are bottled, though whether they will be better is another matter.

Class Comments:

Outstanding class of great Pinot Noirs. These are of world class, reflecting a great vintage, the increasing vine age, and the growing experience of winemakers and viticulturists. The only note of caution is not to over-extract wines already full of flavour and character.
